

Jewellery Workshop

With: Fiona Reynolds
Fiona started making jewellery while receiving treatment for her cancer.

She says: "I found being able to be do something creative with quick results very therapeutic . This has since developed into a hobby which I would like to share this with others going through a similar experience. It can be a great boost to be able to make something for yourself, or as a thank you for someone who has been a support. "

Examples of what you could make at the workshop:

OUR AIM

- ◆ We aim to provide friendship, help, information and support, and a range of complementary therapies for our visitors.
- ◆ We aspire to be inclusive of those who may be living with cancer or who are in remission, whatever your beliefs.
- ◆ We also welcome family, friends and carers who are supporting you, as we recognise that they too may need support.
